

- Statewide Voter Registration System (SVRS) Fact Sheet -

For the first time in Indiana history, here is a preview of the immediate return on investment gained from the software developed from FirstTuesday®.

Below are key statistics now readily available as a result of SVRS!

 To be Updated Regularly **

290,522

Potential duplicates identified by SVRS*

* This number is the result of preliminary tests checking voter files against the following criteria: First Name, Last Name, DOB; Drivers License Number; Social Security Number (SSN); and DOB and last four digits of SSN. Based on this data, a percentage probability of being a duplicate is applied to the registration, and all records with a probability of greater than 50% are flagged for review as a "potential duplicate."

28,845

Potential matches of deceased voters identified by SVRS*

* Based on a review of a 10 year backlog of 656,512 deceased Hoosiers is currently being reviewed and readied to match voter records on SVRS to identify records for deceased voters. Since February 9, 2006, 7,435 potential deceased voters have been identified with 55% of reviewed records cancelled thus far.

4,359,537

Current Indiana voters on SVRS*

* 3,907,824 of these records are for active voters while 451,713 have been flagged as inactive (voters failing to vote in at least the last two general elections).

6,929

Incarcerated voters identified by SVRS*

* Since February 9, 2006, 6,929 potential incarcerated voters have been identified with 94% of reviewed records cancelled thus far.

268,141 voters have been added to Indiana's Statewide Voter Registration System since coming online.

90,938 Voter Registrations have been received electronically from the Bureau of Motor Vehicles since the agency linked to SVRS on 1/23/2006.

"This, for the first time ever, is a universal window to the more than four million voters in Indiana. With this previously unavailable technology, we are now able to improve the integrity and accuracy of Indiana's voter rolls in a way that has never before been possible." – Indiana Secretary of State Todd Rokita

Praise for Indiana's SVRS

"Here in Indiana they are, perhaps one could say, ahead of the game for most states quite frankly." - Ray Martinez, Commissioner, Election Assistance Commission to Indianapolis WISH-TV Channel 8

"We are a role model right now. We're so ahead of schedule." - Laura Herzog, president of the Indiana Voter Registration Association to Indianapolis WISH-TV Channel 8
